

Courses presently being taught under the aegis of CBCS (Choice Based Credit System) Framework introduced by UGC (University Grant's Commission) in 2018
3 Year (6 semester) B.A. (General) course (Classes are taken in both English and vernacular languages. Students may write their exams also in either of the languages.) CBCS syllabus

Semester I

Core Course:

Introduction to Political Theory (Code: PLS-G-CC-1-1-TH+TU)

Semester II

Core Course:

Comparative Government and Politics (Code: PLS-G-CC-2-2-TH+TU)

Semester III

Core Course:

Government and Politics in India (Code: PLS-G-CC-3-3-TH+TU)

Skill Enhancement Course (SEC)

Legal Literacy (Code: PLS-G-SEC-3-A(1)-TH)

Semester IV

Core Course:

International Relations (Code: PLS-G-CC-4-4-TH+TU)

Skill Enhancement Course (SEC):

Elementary Dimensions of Research (Code: PLS-G-SEC-4-B(1)-TH)

Semester V

Discipline Specific Elective (DSE):

Indian Foreign Policy (Code: PLS-G-DSE-A-5-1B-TH+TU)

Semester VI

Discipline Specific Elective (DSE):

Human Rights: Theory and Indian Context (Code: PLS-G-DSE-B-6-2B-TH+TU)

Courses presently being taught under the aegis of the Curriculum and Credit Framework (CCF) of the New Education Policy (NEP), introduced from the session 2023-24 are: NEP CCF syllabus

(Classes are taken in both English and vernacular languages. Students may write their exams also in either of the languages.)

Core/Minor Courses

Political Theory: Foundational Concepts

Constitutional Government in India

Skill Enhancement Courses (SEC)

Democratic Awareness through Legal Literacy

Understanding the Legal System

Interdisciplinary Course (IDC)

Understanding Governance

Value-Added Course (VAC)

Constitutional Values and Fundamental Duties